Recap on the D.C. Legislation Changes

Many of the changes to the D.C.A. were implemented as part of the Town's D.C. Update Study in 2022. These changes were provided through the following Bills:

- Bill 108: More Homes, More Choice Act, 2019
 - Provided timing of payment provisions (for Rental Housing, Institutional development, and non-profit housing), D.C. rate freeze for site plan and zoning by-law amendments, and allows for interest to be applied
- Bill 138: Plan to Build Ontario Together Act, 2019
 - Removed instalment payments for commercial and industrial
- Bill 197: COVID-19 Economic Recovery Act, 2020
 - Provides a list of D.C. eligible services, classes of services, and removal of the 10% mandatory deduction and 10-year planning horizon
- Bill 213: Better for People, Smart for Business Act, 2020
 - Mandatory exemption for universities
- Bill 23: More Homes Built Faster Act, 2022
 - Exemptions, Reductions, Administrative Changes
- Bill 134: Affordable Homes and Good Jobs Act, 2023
 - Amendments to Affordable Housing Criteria from Bill 23

Recap – Addendum Report

- On February 9, 2024, the Town released an addendum report to the D.C. Background Study. The purpose of the report was to:
 - Revise the Water capital listing to update the Main Street Watermain Upgrades project to increase the gross capital cost based on recent estimates; and
 - Revise the Wastewater capital listing to remove the Jordan Village Improvements project.
- Based on the changes above:
 - The water D.C.s increased from $5,953 to $5,968 per single detached home (along with similar increases to the other residential and non-residential categories); and
 - The wastewater D.C.s decreased from $4,902 to $4,457 per single detached home (along with similar decreases to the other residential and nonresidential categories).

Developer Engagement Summary

- The Town held a meeting with the development community on February 14, 2024 to provide an overview of the D.C. process, policies, and calculated rates.
- On February 28, 2024, the Town met with the Niagara Homebuilders Association to answer additional questions. A summary of the questions received, along with the Town's responses are contained within the staff report.
